The Most Important Novelty of Chess Informant 111

by Josip Asik

Our new book, 1000TN!!, presents the 1,000 best theoretical novelties from Informant 11 to Informant 110, as voted by the Chess Informant jury. In the forty-year period from 1971 to 2011, there were sixty winners in total. Current world champion Viswanathan Anand is the highest awarded player with nine novelties, followed by former world champions Karpov, Kasparov, Kramnik, and Topalov. In addition, Anand also scored the winning novelty from Informant 111, making it his tenth TN prize in the history of modern chess!

Here is the list of his award-winning games:

- Anand-Kamsky, Sanghi Nagar (m/1) 1994, Informant 61/345
- Anand-Tkachiev, Moscow (m/1) 2001, Informant 83/326
- Anand-Kasimdzhanov, Hyderabad 2002, - Informant 86/137
- Anand-Bologan, Dortmund 2003, Informant 88/77
- Anand-Adams, San Luis 2005, Informant 94/267
- Anand-Kramnik, Bonn (m/6) 2008, Informant 104/146
- Anand-Leko, Moscow 2009, Informant 107/132
- Anand-Topalov, Sofia (m/4) 2010, Informant 108/134
- Topalov-Anand, Nanjing 2010, Informant 110/243
- Anand-Wang Hao, Wijk aan Zee 2011, Informant 111/268

The complete list of sixty TN winners for Informants 11-111 is as follows:

Anand has also been a member of the voting panel on many occasions. He had this to say, "Chess Informant has been the definitive source of chess information since its inception. Due to the high quality analysis by the best players, it is essential to opening preparation. The jury lists help the reader measure the pulse of the development of the game and the most important trends."

What is most important about the contest is the fact that the jury members are players themselves. There is no higher praise than that of ones colleagues. We are happy to announce that our newest jury member, beginning with Informant 112, is the well-known grandmaster Sergey Tiviakov.

The complete list of all seventy jurists for Informants 11-111 is as follows:

Timman (75), Salov (55), Anand, Benjamin (53), Lutz (51), Jussupow (49),

He had this to say, "Chess Informant has been a leading source of information for decades. In the past the emphasis has been mainly on openings, resulting in a tradition that a jury judges the most important novelties of each volume. I have been part of this tradition for decades. It is important to establish which are the most important novelties, since it shows the development in various openings. I have always taken great pleasure in this work."

This month we are pleased to present Anand's winning TN from volume 111, accompanied by the ECO line, as published in Chess Informant 112.
