The 1,000 Best of the Best

Zdenko Krnic

The manuscript for our new book, crowning forty-two years of Chess Informant, is in its final phase. The foreword gives a foretaste of the inexhaustible source of chess creativity that you will be able to enjoy for many years:

“In the second half of 20th century, the game of chess swept around the world. ‘The Royal Game had become a game of the people.’ Chess Informant appeared, collecting some of the most precious games created by chess players. From millions of games played at some of the most important tournaments worldwide, 101,031 games have been published in the first 100 volumes of Chess Informant (1966-2008). In addition, each volume featured the ten best games of the previous volume, as selected and voted by a jury of grandmasters. Now we are proud to present a new book, featuring the complete collection of these ten best games from Chess Informant – 1,000, the Best of the Best. 1,000 stands alone as a unique tribute to excellence in chess.”

Eighty-five members of the jury selected the 1,000 Best of the Best games, among which are the greatest names of chess: Euwe, Botvinnik, Smyslov, Tal, Petrosian, Karpov, Anand, Chiburdanidze, Xie Jun, Judit Polgar, Pirc, Lilienthal, Flor, Kotov, Bondarevsky, Najdorf, Korchnoi, Larsen, Gligoric, Ljubojevic, and Bronstein to name just a few. All the games are annotated, and all the golden games (the winning game from each volume) are illustrated by a photograph or a caricature of the winner.

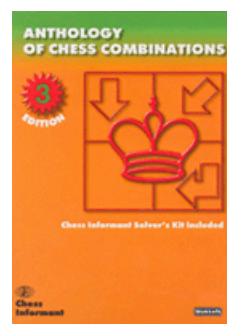

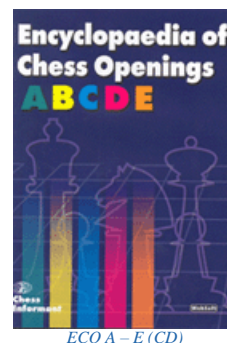

If you buy the book, you can participate in a contest and vote for the ten best games out of the 100 golden games and win some of the valuable Chess Informant product prizes valued at 10,000 EUR. The task before you is not an easy one, but it will offer you hours and hours of enjoyment.

On this occasion we present five of the winning 100 games, one from each decade. The unforgettable Bobby Fischer showed in his victory against Unzicker that beauty in chess is not only found in material sacrifice, but also in subtle positional play. In the seventies, Ljubomir Ljubojevic announced his superb talent in the game against Dura0. The great champion Garry Kasparov achieved fifteen winning games during his fruitful career, only one ahead of his rival Anatoly Karpov. Kasparov himself could not decide which of the two chosen games was more favorable to him. Finally, reigning champion Anand is represented by a game from the first decade of this century that illustrates the cavalier approach of the current generation to material.
